

Denise Cooper-Clarke

Qualifications

MBBS, BTh, MBHL (Otago), PhD

Profile

Denise is a voluntary researcher with ETHOS (Evangelical Alliance Centre for Christianity and Society), an adjunct Lecturer in Ethics at Ridley Melbourne, and a tutor in medical ethics at the University of Melbourne. She is also chair of the Ethics Committee of the Christian Medical and Dental Fellowship of Australia. In the science-faith area, she has a particular interest in the ethical implications of the new biotechnologies, and is happy to speak on topics in medical ethics.